

Education

Wellesley High School - Class of 2016

Evolutions Program - 2015-2016

- Interdisciplinary program within Wellesley High School
- Project based learning
- Pilot year

Savannah College of Art and Design

Anticipated graduation 2022

BFA Dramatic Writing and Performing Arts

Skills

- Able to adapt to new, high stress environments
- Dependable contributor committed to the success of the project and coworkers
- Confident and dedicated to achieving excellence
- Enthusiastic about learning new concepts
- Team player able to adapt to the needs of coworkers

Software

- Microsoft Word
- Microsoft Powerpoint
- Microsoft Excel
- Adobe Photoshop
- Adobe InDesign
- Adobe Illustrator
- Adobe After Effects

Awards

Boston Playwrights New Noises Festival

- 2015
- Wrote an original, 10 page one act play
- Performed in Boston at the Boston Playwrights Theatre

Professional Experience

Stupid Girl by Bec Lowe - 2015

- Original play written in Acting 3 classes
- Performed in Boston at Boston Playwrights New Noises Festival
- Comedic horror play about a doll killing the stereotypical mean cheerleader girl

Patient 718 by Bec Lowe - 2016

- One person show, social commentary on the mental health system in the US
- Dystopian world where Patient 718 is in mental hospital for refusing robots
- Written and performed for a school project

The Broken by Bec Lowe - 2016

- Work in progress play about a suicide attempt victim
- Personal project in an attempt to reduce stigma surrounding mental illness

Footprints by Wellesley Theatre Project's Impact! - 2016

- Musical about the lives of children and teenagers containing original music and scenes
- Cowrote and directed with students ages 8 to 18

Volunteer Experience

Massachusetts Military Fund

- Plant flags on Boston Common for Memorial Day

Boston Cares

- Soup kitchen for people with AIDS/HIV
- Making blankets for shelters in Boston

Franklin Park Zoo Cleanup